At only 23-years-old she was one of the biggest music sensations and known only by one name. Selena had captivated fans across the country, but the Tejano star and fashion designer’s biggest dream was about to become a reality—an English-language crossover album that would launch her music onto the pop charts. But then, an unexpected and unbelievable tragedy took place. On the cusp of superstardom, Selena Quintanilla-Pérez’s life ended with one fatal shot. The shooter was her fan club president and close friend. Who was this trusted insider who turned on Selena? And why did she do it? HLN revisits the story in “Selena: Fatal Encounter.”

How It Really Happened with Hill Harper is a buzzed-about true crime documentary series that has revisited some of the most notorious criminal cases and trials, star-studded tragedies and inexplicable mysteries of the last century. Season three will take viewers back through the life and shocking death of pop star Selena Quintanilla-Pérez, HLN-televised sexually-charged murder trial of Jodi Arias, secrets and lies of NFL superstar Aaron Hernandez, standoff and siege at Waco and twisted, ritualistic murders of serial killer Ted Bundy. How It Really Happened airs Sundays at 7pm CT starting Sunday, October 7, only on HLN. Episodes are also available on HLN On Demand and CNNgo.
